

Incident Description

September 29, 2024 at ~5:00 a.m., the fire department was called to respond to smoke observed at Bio-Lab's Conyers facility. By 6:40 a.m., flames were visibly seen from the roof. The fire resulted in colorful and dark plumes of smoke and off-gassing of chemicals, and the 1st shelter in place notification was sent at 7:40 a.m. No injuries have been reported at this time as a result of this incident.

Incident Consequences

- ~17,000 people evacuated the area
- Shelter in place notifications were put in place up to 2 miles away, lasted 18 days
- Building destroyed in the fire

Deployment Activities

- Deployed October 2, 2024, and held opening meeting
- Conducted over 20 interviews
- Began evidence collection
- Ongoing Investigation